Reduced Rates for Disposal Fees For Senior Citizens

The qualification criteria for reduced trash collection rates for Norwalk residents are as follows:

1. The applicant must be head of household and at least 65 years of age.
2. To qualify for this discount, only the applicant and up to one other senior citizen are permitted to live in the home. (Exceptions will be made if a dependent handicapped child lives in the home along with the seniors.)
3. The senior occupants must either be the registered homeowner or be paying for the trash bill if renting.
4. This discounted rate allows only for 1 black, 1 green and 1 blue container.
5. Return completed form to the disposal company that services your address. Addresses for disposal companies are located at the top of this form.
6. Please contact your disposal company for questions regarding this application.
