Norwalk Civic Center Food Court Additions

The Norwalk Civic Center Food Court welcomes two new additions. Joining the ranks of Starbucks Coffee, Taco Fresh, and Cold Stone Ice Cream are the Tropical Smoothie Café and Yasai Japanese Grill. Tropical Smoothie Café owners Anil Patel and Rupal Patel hosted their Grand Opening celebration on October 12, 2006. AMC patrons and people working in and around Norwalk Civic Center have warmly received the Tropical Smoothie Café. This most enjoyable eatery offers an impressive variety of products including smoothies, soups, salads, wraps, and gourmet sandwiches.

Yasai Japanese Grill also a latest addition to the food court.

Smoothies come in a variety of flavors made with real fruit and for the health conscious, low-fat smoothies and Splenda smoothies are also available. All of Tropical Smoothies' salads, soups, wraps, and sandwiches are prepared fresh daily. In addition, Tropical Smoothie Café offers catering services for special events. Tropical Smoothie Café is open 7 days a week. To place an order or request more information, please call 929-4010.

The second new addition to the Civic Center Food Court is Yasai Japanese Grill. Yasai is owned and operated by Sukai Cho, and Sukok So. Yasai had its grand opening on February 6, 2007.

Yasai offers a wide variety of exotic meals that include sushi, salads, chicken, beef, salmon, and pork. All meats are grilled and kept extremely fresh. Yasai's owners highly recommend the Teriyaki Beef and Chicken served with 4 California rolls. Yasai is open 7 days a week and also offer catering services. To contact Yasai please call 562-868-9888.
