In the event an employee presents their own grievance, no settlement that interprets this Memorandum of Understanding shall be made without the Union's knowledge, input, and agreement.

The grieving party may request the assistance of another person or persons of his/her own choosing in presenting the grievance at any level of the formal process or may represent himself/herself.

E. Time Off For Processing Grievances

1. Informal – The processing of a grievance at the informal stage shall be considered as City business; however, such processing shall be at reasonable times so as not to disrupt the normal working processes of the division or department.
2. Formal – The processing of a grievance at the formal stage, except filling out the form and the initial filing, shall be considered as City business. The employee and his/her representative (limited to one City employee) shall receive time off from regularly-scheduled duty hours to participate in the grievance procedure without loss of pay for the time so spent.

F. Informal Process

Level One - Supervisor

An employee must first attempt to resolve the grievance on an informal basis by discussion with his/her immediate supervisor within ten (10) business days after the first occurrence giving rise to the grievance, or within ten (10) business days after the employee, through the use of reasonable diligence, should have obtained knowledge of the first occurrence of the event giving rise to the grievance. The supervisor will provide his/her answer to the employee by the end of the tenth (10th) business day following the presentation of the grievance. The issuance of such answer will terminate Level One. An employee may have a representative of his/her choice present during the informal grievance meeting with the immediate supervisor. If the employee is dissatisfied, if the supervisor fails to respond timely, or if the specific situation appropriately warrants bypass of the informal process, the employee shall have access to the formal grievance process.

F. Formal Process

Level Two - Department Head

If the grievance is not settled at Level One, the grievant may, within ten (10) business days after the termination of Level One, appeal the grievance in writing to the department head on the form provided by the City. The department head shall schedule a meeting with the grievant to take place within ten (10) business days from the date the grievance is referred to Level Two. The department head shall render a written decision regarding the grievance by the end of the tenth (10th) business day following the date of the meeting. The giving of such reply will terminate Level Two.

Level Three - Director of Human Resources

If the grievance is not resolved at Level Two, the grievant may, within ten (10) business days after the termination of Level Two, appeal the grievance in writing on the City-provided form to the Director of Human Resources. The Director of Human Resources shall schedule a meeting with the grievant to take place within ten (10) business days from the date the grievance is referred to Level Three. The Director of Human Resources shall render a written decision regarding the grievance by the end of the tenth (10th) business day following the date of the meeting. The giving of such decision shall terminate Level Three.

Level Four - Personnel Appeals Board

If the grievance is not resolved at Level Three, the grievant may, within ten (10) business days after the termination of Level Three, file a written request with the Director of Human Resources requesting a hearing before the Personnel Appeals Board. The Director of Human Resources shall, as soon as possible, undertake all necessary actions to convene the Personnel Appeals Board. The hearing before the Personnel Appeals Board shall be conducted as set forth in the Personnel Rules and Regulations. The decision of the Board shall be advisory only. The Board shall, within thirty (30) days following the completion of the hearing, decide whether to recommend to the City Manager that the action complained of be sustained, rejected or modified. The decision shall be in writing and shall contain findings of fact, a determination of the issues presented, and the action, if any, recommended by the Board.

The recommendation of the Personnel Appeals Board and the record of the proceedings held before it shall be filed with the City Manager. The City Manager shall consider such record and recommendation and shall make a final determination affirming, rejecting, or modifying the prior determination on the matter. The final determination of the City Manager shall be in writing and shall be delivered to the grievant personally or by certified mail. The giving of such determination will terminate Level Four.

Level Five - City Council

If the grievance is not resolved at Level Four, the grievant may, within ten (10) business days after the termination of Level Four, file a written request with the City Clerk requesting a hearing before the City Council. The City Council shall, at its next regularly scheduled meeting, determine whether to hear the matter. If it is determined to hear the matter, the City Council shall determine whether the hearing shall be de novo or limited to a review of the record of the hearing before the Personnel Appeals Board to determine if the City Manager's decision was supported by substantial evidence. Any hearing shall be conducted pursuant to the rules of procedure set forth in the Personnel Rules and Regulations. Upon the conclusion of any review or hearing, the City Council shall cause its findings and decision to be prepared in writing, adopted by motion or resolution of the Council, and filed as a permanent record by the Director of Human Resources. The decision of the City Council shall be final. A certified copy of the decision shall be submitted to the grievant or his/her designee.

 - 3. If no volunteer is available and the overtime assignment is mandatory, the seniority list shall be called in inverse order to make an involuntary assignment.
