

HOMETOWN HEROES

BANNER PROGRAM

APPLICATION

Current military service personnel may be honored as a Hometown Hero with a personalized banner displayed along Imperial Highway. Applicants must be: 1) currently serving on active duty or as an active reservist in any branch of the US military, and 2) a Norwalk resident or family member of a Norwalk resident. Family member must be immediate (i.e. brother, sister, spouse, parent, grandchild).

Banners will be removed from display and returned to the family/honoree one year from posting date in a special presentation during a City Council meeting. Honoree's service will also be featured on cable television, website, in the Norwalk Now newsletter and at City Hall. Please provide photo of honoree in uniform.

Applicant/Service Personnel Information:

Please print legibly or type first and last name as it should appear on the banner. Name and branch of service lettering will be sized to fit. Photo image and rank will not be included on banner, but will be used in presentation.
